OCHS to Open New Exhibit: Suited for Service

Kissimmee, Florida (September 10, 2018) – The Suited for Service temporary exhibit, presented by the Osceola County Historical Society allows guests a glimpse into military uniforms and gear from the Civil War to World War II.

Suited for Service will be on display from September 15, 2018 to December 16, 2018, located at the Osceola County Welcome Center and History Museum, 4155 W. Vine St., Kissimmee, FL 34741. The museum is free to the public and is open every day from 9AM to 5PM.

The Suited for Service Temporary Exhibit Opening Reception, hosted by OCHS will be held on September 19, 2018. This event is open to the public and guests will be able to interact with OCHS' staff, ask questions, and enjoy refreshments while hearing from guest speakers and viewing the exhibit. The reception is free to attend. Please RSVP to this event on our website: <http://osceolahistory.org/event/suited-service-opening-reception/>. Be one of the first to view this unique exhibit!

In addition to the Suited for Service temporary exhibit, OCHS will be hosting an Art in the Archives Paint Night. This paint night will be inspired by the Suited for Service exhibit and will provide guests with an opportunity to create a personal and unique souvenir. Guests will also be able to take a private, afterhours tour of the Osceola County Welcome Center and History Museum and the Suited for Service temporary exhibit. The Art in the Archives Paint Night will be held on November 21, 2018 from 5:30PM to 8:00PM. The cost is $30.00 per person which includes supplies, snacks and sips.

The Osceola County Historical Society collects and preserves the county's history, and provides educational, research and recreational opportunities to foster an understanding and enjoyment of the area's cultural and natural heritage through museum displays, demonstrations, interpretive programs, and special events for residents and visitors.
